Pending before the Court is the Joint Motion to Stay [# 16]. The parties in this case move to stay this civil action for ninety (90) days while the Pension Committee for the relevant pension plan conducts a further review of Plaintiff's claim in light of additional information submitted by Plaintiff. This additional information is outside the current administrative record. Upon a review of the record, and for good cause shown, the Court finds that a stay of this civil action is appropriate. Staying the civil action while the Pension Committee considers the newly submitted information is the most efficient means of resolving this case. Accordingly, the Court GRANTS the Motion to Stay [# 16]. The Court STAYS this case until the earlier of January 1, 2012, or five (5) days after the Pension Committee renders a decision as to Plaintiff's claim.
